James Harper - Teaching Professional

James has been a member of the CPGA since 1987. He comes from a family of well-known golfers from the Nanaimo area, who have won 9 different provincial championships. As a junior, James won both the BC Junior and the BC Amateur in the same year, as well as representing Canada on the Junior World Cup Team.

James played his college golf at Brigham Young University before turning professional. He then travelled the world, playing on the Canadian, Asian and Australian Professional Golf Tours. James has won the 2005 BC Match Play Championship, the 2005 Chilliwack Open, and the 2005 Olympic Peninsula Pro-Pro and, most recently, the 2011 Chilliwack Open.
