Would you like to become a better ball striker?

Would you like clear direction as to what and how to practice?

Would you like a set up and swing that fit your body?

Bio Swing Dynamics launches now!

$229 + GST

This six hour program is held in 2 three-hour sessions on consecutive weeks. An intensive focus on building a set-up, correct movements and relationships in your golf swing based on your physical structure and movement patterns. Be prepared to make the game simple by attending this powerful opportunity leading to your best ball striking, easily.

With British Columbia's only Certified Bio Swing Dynamics Instructor Mike Vanderwolf:

Participants will be part of a study that will be the source of an upcoming Golf Magazine article by Dr. David Wright from Wright Balance Inc. Included in the program is Dr. Wright's balance test that determines specifically appropriate stance widths and weight distribution for all participants. If taken alone this test has a value of $150.00 U.S., but is yours as part of this ground breaking new program.

The world's finest radar launch monitor technology is also featured. Trackman will be recording the before and after data ensuring all participants understand where their performance gains are to be found.
