Sandra Comadina - Teaching Professional

Sandra has been a member of the Canadian PGA since 1995, completing her “Class A” status from the Whistler Golf Course in 1999. She then moved to Vancouver and McCleery Golf Course to focus her time on teaching and playing. For the next 10 years she competed on the Futures Tour, Women’s Canadian Tour, PGA of BC events, McGregor Tour and caddied on the LPGA tour for a number of events. During that time she also took many courses and seminars to hone her teaching skills.

Sandra has won a Provincial title, a National Club Professional title and was a member of the Titleist Cup Team for 3 years. She also competes at a high level in curling, has been to several Provincial Championships and has won a Provincial title in Mixed curling. She will represent B.C. at the Mixed Nationals in November 2013.

Sandra has a young family and currently works on a part-time basis for the McCleery Golf Academy.
